Allah has created everything whether physical or spiritual beings. The angels are are spiritual beings created by Allah. The angels are the creation of Allah, they are are not His partners. They are His servants created from light. Because the angels are spiritual beings, they are invisible. The angels always obey the commands of Allah and carry out His orders. Thre are different angels who are engaged in different duties. Some are engaged in keeping records of all our actions: some others brought the message of God to the prophet Muhammad (p.b.u.h) The famous angels constantly occupied in carrying out (Michael). Belief in angels is one of the pillars of Islamic faith. We have to believe in the angels and it is a part of our belief as Muslims. The Prophet Muhammad (p.b.u.h) was given the power to see to talk with the angel Gabriel.
