Dear Ajer
Based on information from Ajer editor which stated that my manuscript was pending for publication on February 21 2024, 3.28 PM, even though I had sent proof of my payment via Paypal on February 20 2024. Because I assume that the payment had not been received, I opened my Paypal account and It turns out that without realizing it, I made another payment so it was recorded that I had made two payments for the same manuscript, therefore I ask for your help - can it be returned to my account?
thanks in advance

regards
Faisal Habib
